

Dear Academia del Pueblo Families,

Welcome to the 2021-2022 school year! I am thrilled to be welcoming your children back to school. We have eagerly anticipated the full reopening of our campus. Our continued commitment to fostering resilience, perseverance, empathy and the ability to communicate effectively in diverse learning partnerships will undoubtedly help our students thrive academically, socially and emotionally.

All have endured the past year's pandemic effects in our families, workplaces, and education. The teachers and staff at Academia del Pueblo strived to provide the very best education to all students through either in-person or online learning. While we are proud to have the ability to convert to online learning if needed, we will only be offering in-person learning for the 2021-2022 school year. I look forward to reinstating many programs including after school, sporting leagues and special events.

As we begin the new school year, I look forward to partnering with you and sharing in your journey of watching your child grow. The partnership between school and home will be important as we look to support children and families. The physical and social-emotional safety of our students, families and staff will remain the highest priority. As you know, we will begin the school year on August 4, 2021. During the first few weeks of school, it is imperative that students build relationships with their teacher(s) and peers. We also look forward to rebuilding our relationships with parents, guardians and family members through scheduled events and programs on campus. We really miss having our families on campus.

One of the greatest characteristics of the Academia del Pueblo learning community is the genuine care and compassion shared between staff, students, and parents. Academia del Pueblo is a place where staff and families come together to ensure that the children entrusted into our care grow to become productive, confident, compassionate members of a global society. We look forward to a new school year of learning with you and your children. We welcome you to Academia del Pueblo Elementary and wish you a great school year!

Sincerely,
Frank Lomeli, M.Ed.
School Principal
